

BOARD MEMBERS Guidance & Return

This form reflects the Code of Conduct and schedule of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests as outlined in Sections 3 and 4 of the Constitution. You may return the forms in 'hard' copy or as emailed documents, but please ensure that you have signed your form before return (electronic signatures are fine). Please ensure that all sections of the form are completed, using 'none' in sections where appropriate.

The Relevant Authorities (Disclosable Pecuniary Interests) Regulations 2012 make clear that the interests of Members' spouses and partners are also to be declared, however while those interests should be declared, you do NOT need to include the name of your spouse or partner on the form, nor do you need to differentiate between your respective interests (hence the single box under each heading).

To assist you more generally with the completion of the form, attached is a copy of DCLG document 'Openness and Transparency on Personal Interests - A Guide for Councillors'. Although aimed at Councillors, this guidance is of use and relevance to Members of the Board. May I also remind you that you need only declare relevant interests insofar as they relate to the administrative area of the Board. Although collated by the Board, Pat Arran, Monitoring Officer, holds the formal Register of Interests, and a copy is available at the Offices of the Board.

The Register is a public document, available for inspection. Your Register entries will also be made available online. All Register forms will remain on the Register for the duration of a Member's term of office. If you have any questions on any of the above, please do not hesitate to contact Pat Arran via email,
