

CEO's Update for 20th January 2026 Executive Committee

Communications and Engagement
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>I've been really proud of the work Alana has been doing that resulted in a lot of communication and publicity over the Christmas and New Year period.</li> <li>James, Bec (Foster) and Alana were interviewed by BBC Radio Gloucestershire to talk about the Caring for the Cotswolds scheme and CNL at 60 respectively.</li> <li>Alana has also successfully secured monthly articles celebrating the CN at 60 in this year's Cotswold Life along with many other plans including the launch of the Field and Folk film in the summer.</li> <li>The deadline for applications for Caring for the Cotswolds was 18th January. James will be covering this and exciting news on the Landscape Connections bid in his item later.</li> <li>In advance of that, I want to register my admiration for James and his team (Helen, Rowan and Bec) for all they've achieved since their creation last summer and to James for his vision and leadership of this newly formed Engagement Team. Not least I want to thank James for his continuing fundraising and grant application successes whether Caring for the Cotswolds, Great Big Climate Circus and Landscape Connections.</li> </ul>
Planning &amp; Infrastructure
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>John and Simon Joyce have been exceptionally busy of late and I wanted to formally register my appreciation for the sheer amount of work, particularly regarding local development plans, they've undertaken all while maintaining a high standard that regularly elicits positive feedback from members of the PIWG, stakeholders and other National Landscapes.</li> <li>I was particularly proud of John and Simon's partnership approach with the Chilterns National Landscape on responding to MHCLGs consultation on Reforms to the Statutory Consultee System.</li> <li>John has also successfully secured approval for a £370,000 project to remove 1.6km of overhead electricity cables and 18 cable poles on Bredon Hill, north-east of Kemerton. The overhead cables would be replaced with 2.3km of underground cables. This will significantly enhance visual amenity in this locality.</li> </ul>

Farming in Protected landscapes (FiPL)

- I'm really pleased to confirm FiPL will be extended for a further three years to March 2029. This was announced by Emma Reynolds, the Environment Secretary, at the Oxford Farming Conference on 8th January.
- The overall (national) funding allocation will be £30m per year. The allocation for 2026/27 is confirmed with allocations for the following two years to be confirmed.
- The priority for the FiPL team over the next three months will be to maximise the allocation and spend of this year's grant money. At the end of December 2025 circa £100k remained to be allocated to projects that must be completed by the end of March 2026. The team is confident this can be achieved. The project pipeline remains healthy with numerous projects in development with an e-newsletter circulated to around 500 farmers, land managers and advisers encouraging further proposals.
- The FiPL panel next meets 27th January.
