IMAGE CONSENT FORM

This activity is part of a Caring for the Cotswolds project (CftC___ [INSERT PROJECT ID]) funded by Cotswolds National Landscape with thanks to their Cotswolds-based business partners and The National Lottery Heritage Fund.

During the activity, we may take photographs (still images). The team at Cotswolds National Landscape use stories (words, photography and film) to assess project progress and completion, increase awareness about their work and to report on their positive impact. This form asks you to give your consent for us to take photographs of you during our project activities, and to share these photographs with Cotswolds National Landscape.

Cotswolds National Landscape would store and use these photographs for evaluating project completion and for project communication inside and outside their organisation. They may also share these photographs with other organisations to fulfil their other communication work, e.g., providing images to design/print agencies; press releases to news outlets.
